In 1984, the former Orange County Marshal's Department entered into an agreement with the County Public Guardian and the County Public Defender's office for the transportation of Conservatees to the Superior Court from their respective mental health facilities. Under this agreement, the Juvenile Court was responsible for transporting these Conservatee Patients between the various mental health facilities and the court. Conservatorship is now under direction of the Probate Court. The Public Defender's office and the Public Guardian's office are now responsible for issuing and delivering transportation orders to the Orange County Sheriff's Department in a timely manner as well as updating these orders when necessary.

The Conservatee Transportation Team is a detail within the Orange County Sheriff's Department at the Lamoreaux Justice Center. The Transportation team is comprised of four Sheriff's Special Officer II's, from the Orange County Sheriff's Department. The Conservatee Transportation team's duties are to pick up, [REDACTED]
